

SPEAKER'S BUREAU DIRECTORY

Marjorie J. Lowe

5151 Buffalo Speedway, Apt. 4201
Houston, TX 77005

Cell: (832) 801-7063
hunter@hal-pc.org
www.fivetribes.info

Bio:

Marjorie J. Lowe, retired teacher, was born and raised on her father's Cherokee allotment in Washington Co. OK. A registered citizen of the 300,000 member Cherokee Nation, she has served on the Board of Trustees of the Cherokee National Historical Society, the OK Chapter of the Trail of Tears Association, and the Cherokee At Large Voters League of Houston, a recognized Cherokee community.

In 2003, The Cherokee Nation awarded Lowe the Gadugi medal for Community Leadership. In 2009, the Cherokee National Council confirmed her as a member of the Cherokee Nation Registration Committee.

Lowe has contributed Indian related articles to the Chronicles of Oklahoma, the Goingsnake Messenger, the Cherokee Heritage Center, "Columns", the Houston Genealogical Forum Quarterly and the Scottish Genealogy Magazine.

She has authored two books:

1835 Cherokee Valuations, Heritage Books, Inc. Westminster MD. [2012]

A Guide to the Cherokee National Museum Newspaper Collection, Cherokee Heritage Press, Tahlequah, OK. [2010] 1st Place; Prof/Reference Works; TSGA Writing Awards [2011].

Lowe is a member of the First Families of the Cherokee Nation, the Siol Lewis of the Clan Grant of Scotland, the First Families of TX, the Daughters of the Republic of TX, the First Families of TN, the First Families of the Twin Territories (OK), and the Daughters of the War of 1812, all on her Cherokee ancestry. She is also a member of the Houston Genealogical Forum where she served as President, Friends of Clayton Library, the Bear Creek Genealogy Society, the Association of Professional Genealogists, and the Lone Star Chapter of the Professional Genealogists of TX.

Lowe is an alum of the Samford University Genealogical Institute, Birmingham, AL [2000], the National Institute for Genealogical Research, Washington D.C. [2001] and will be attending the Salt Lake Institute of Genealogy in 2012 in UT.

Topics:

- The Dawes Roll and Beyond
- Five Tribes Research
- The Top Ten Repositories for Five Tribes Research.
- Five Tribes' Long Trails Winding - Removal Research.

Fees: Contact Speaker for details.