

Clayton Library Friends – Annual Meeting

Date: Saturday, November 21, 2020

Time: 10:30 am – Noon

Program Title: Photo Detective Roadshow

Virtual Meeting: GoToWebinar via TxSGS

NOTE: DEADLINE IS SEPTEMBER 21, 2020 to submit photo(s) for the program.

It's a virtual show and tell, and is totally interactive in which members of CLF only can submit photos ahead of time, and if selected, you will meet virtually with Maureen Taylor to learn about the specific clues she uncovers about your photos.

CLF members who are interested in having their photos examined by Maureen, please submit them with a description of what you know and what you would like to know in an email to info@claytonlibraryfriends.org. If not a member of CLF, and you wish to submit a photo and join CLF, please go to: <https://claytonlibraryfriends.org/>. You do not have to be a CLF member to attend the meeting. Keep checking CLF website for latest instructions for how to join the virtual meeting!!

Maureen was a former curator at a historical society. She knows how to make sense of photographs and family history. Her skills live at the junction of history, genealogy, and photography. This means you can count on her to help you identify the people in your pictures, offer solutions for preserving and organizing them, and yes, even guide you in the various ways to gather and share picture stories with your relatives.
