The Genealogy Center is an extension of the Carver Museum and Cultural Center and acts as a public resource for learning about family history. The Center provides access to genealogical information such as databases; books; instructive material and monthly seminars. Although the center is set up as a self-guided experience; it will provide limited genealogical assistance. We want to be the repository for your African American family history. If you would like to donate your family history to the Center; please contact us.
